MEMORANDUM FOR: General Counsel

FROM: Harry E. Fitzwater
Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: Honorarium for Work Done [REDACTED]

STAT

1. [REDACTED] of the Office of Training and Education has been offered an honorarium to rewrite a preface for his book [REDACTED] which has recently been published on an unclassified basis. Since the book was researched and written [REDACTED] as a dedicated task covering many years of government expense, I question whether he is entitled to accept an honorarium and request a legal opinion. The background follows.

STAT

2. Research for the book was begun in 1970 following the success of an earlier, much shorter, volume written [REDACTED]

STAT

[REDACTED] This earlier work had been well received and was reprinted in its entirety as a special issue of Studies in Intelligence. It was subsequently awarded a first prize in that publication's annual review of its articles.

3. In July 1970, the Director of Training, Dr. Hugh T. Cunningham, following discussions with DCI Helms, Executive Director Colonel White, and Historian Dr. Howard Ehrmann authorized [REDACTED] to research and write a comprehensive, detailed account of the origin and establishment of the Agency. This work was completed in August 1974. In January 1975 it was published, in typescript, in 50 sets of two volumes as a SECRET document.

STAT

4. About three years later three different non-Agency persons submitted FOIA requests for [REDACTED] volumes. Of these three one was Mr. Anthony Cave Brown who had already published under his own name and copyright hitherto classified documents. In view of this track record and since it was obvious that the material would have to go out under FOIA, the Deputy Director for Administration, Mr. Don Wortman, on 1 May 1980 authorized the Center for the Study of Intelligence to publish an unclassified version.

5. This version has now been printed and distributed in one volume both inside and outside the Agency to a variety of interested parties, one of whom is Mr. Walter L. Pforzheimer. The latter was consulted by Mr. Owen Locke, executive Editor of Ballantine Books, for suggestions on books to be included in Ballantine's new series on espionage and intelligence. Mr. Pforzheimer recommended to Locke that Ballantine publish [REDACTED] and such publication is now scheduled for January 1982.

SUBJECT: Honorarium for Work Done [ ]

STAT

STAT 6. [ ] has been requested by Mr. Locke to write a new preface STAT for the Ballantine edition. Essentially this would be a restructuring of the present two prefaces with a few new introductory paragraphs. They have offered [ ] an honorarium of $500, to which his response was "Let's think about that." Essentially that is where the matter now stands.
